In our HIV Criminalisation Online Course, we will provide you with a complete global overview of HIV criminalisation and all the information, tools, and resources you need to help you understand the problems of HIV criminalisation and work towards a solution that fits your context.

With an engaging blend of interactive text, videos, and key resources, you'll learn from the world's foremost experts on HIV criminalisation, including:

- people with lived experience – on both sides of the courtroom;
- specialists in public health and human rights;
- experts in the science of HIV;

- and advocates and activists from all over the world who share the lessons they learnt during their own unique journeys to reform, repeal or limit HIV criminalisation laws.

This course is totally free; you can learn your own pace; and you'll receive a Certificate of Completion when you've passed the end of course test.

So, if you're interested in HIV criminalisation and want to learn more, then sign up for the HIV Criminalisation Online Course at the HIV Justice Academy, and "Prepare for action!"
